August 30, 1937.

Mr. Hughes Allison,
Maxine Elliott's Theatre,
Broadway and 39th St.

Dear Mr. Allison,

Would you be kind enough to grant
me an interview on ~~Wednesday~~ ^{Tuesday} evening after the show.
At that time, I would ~~also~~ like to make an appointment, with the actor who has made such a name and won fame for the whole group.

Having just arrived from the country and trying to listen to the fight at the same time adds to the weary look of this letter.

In event, that you cannot make this appointment kindly let me know when you can.

I have seats in the balcony, center A.

Thanking you again-

Yours truly,

Nell Occomy.
Special Afro Correspondent.
